WHAT IS CCUWiP?

The Canadian Conference for Undergraduate Women in Physics (CCUWiP) focuses on supporting women and underrepresented minorities in physics. CCUWiP aims to promote diversity, raise awareness of the struggles women and minorities face in physics, and create an environment where delegates can network, share their research, and feel supported.

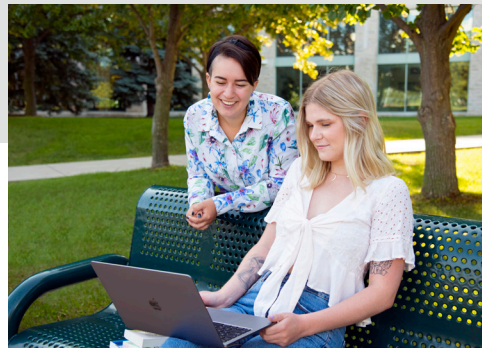

OUR CONFERENCE

The 10th CCUWiP will be held at the University of Regina, in Regina, Saskatchewan, January 20-22, 2023. These dates align with the CUWiP meetings taking place in the United States. We look forward to hosting up to 250 delegates from across Canada.

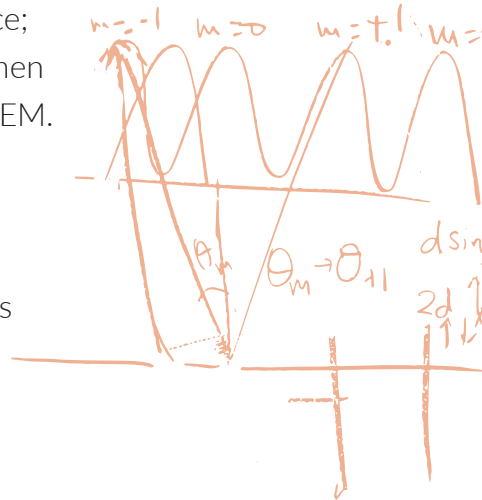

This conference would not be possible without your generous support. Your donations allow women, members of the LGBTQ+ community and others to learn, network and prosper from their experience at CCUWiP, the only event of its kind in Canada.

OUR GOAL

Our goal is to provide a welcoming and engaging environment for our attendees. To do this, we keep registration costs at a minimum.

Registration fees are $60 CAD, which includes all hotel expenses and meals. With your support, we can maintain the accessibility of this conference; the only one in Canada that supports women and minorities in the physics branch of STEM.

YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS

To encourage participation of students from across Canada, a portion of the funds will be set aside as travel grants, supporting those who might otherwise be unable to attend.
